LIVING WELL

The Lord your God in your midst,
The Mighty One, will save;
He will rejoice over you with gladness,
He will quiet you with His love,
He will rejoice over you with singing."
Zephaniah 3:17

I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Psalms 54:6

Words from Senior Pastor

Fifteen years ago when we moved into the house where we now live, we planted a pine tree. After fifteen years it has grown taller than the roof, but its trunk was covered by parasitic plants that caused branches to dry up and die, making a dirty mess on the ground. Shimu and I had wanted to get rid of these dried branches for a long time but they were too high to deal with.

Thank God for giving us the right tool recently, that is, a long-held saw. It took us a few days and finally we got rid of all the dead branches of the tree. The ground is now very clean. Not only that, the tree has grown new branches, and in a while it will be fresh and green, showing a renewed and rejuvenated sight.

I believe the physical world also reflects the spiritual world. Therefore, this is a season for everyone in Kuching 611 to cut off dry branches in life. With the dry branches removed, we are bound to be fruitful, good disciples of the glorious Lord Jesus.

林大卫牧师 Rev. David Ling

This week's news: Daddy Daughter Date Night

The children church organized a "Daddy Daughter Date Night", with a total of 8 pairs of fathers and daughters came, all dressed in their best. During the event, Pastor Moses encouraged the fathers to help build their daughter's confidence. That night, the children's church created a cozy and romantic atmosphere for the participants. Fathers expressed their love for their daughters and at the same time apologized to them, after which they danced with their "little princesses", causing their daughters to feel both happy and moved.

2020 Family Upgrade 2.0

At the end of 2019, the Father of "Ling Leung" family, Pastor Nathaniel Chow came and blessed 611 with the message that we shall upgrade in all areas with a thankful heart. He mentioned that he already turned 79 and he had been married for 50 years. Looking back the half a century passed, he was largely grateful that he had married a female missionary who at the age of 24, went to Taiwan from the Philippines. Their married life has been full of unknowns and variables, and their two children had settled in the States for ten odd years after study. To them, it was not ideal that the family shall be scattered. Yet realizing that the limited influence of parents on their children, he prays and trusts in God. Surprisingly, their two children returned home one by one. Now, their family of four are pastors. Serving together, they smoothed out their triages and their relationships are getting much more intimate with better rapport. This is way beyond his imagination.

Therefore, Pastor Chow believed that as one humbles himself, he is able to be bold and march forward amid all kinds of life variables. In marriage, let us get to know each other a little bit more every day. We shall remind ourselves always that we are not trying to change the other party but ourselves. May we accept the good and bad in the other party, understand our spouse deeper and appreciate our similarities as well as differences. As we complement each other so that we become one, our love and passion shall be boosted. Family-wise, starting from the whole family turning to Christ, then the whole family loving Him and then the whole family serving the Lord; none of these is by our own strength but His Grace. Therefore, family upgrade 2.0 is for us to learn to humble ourselves, change ourselves, give thanks in all circumstances, then in God, we shall experience huge upgrade. •[2020.01.19]
