VOL 804

For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Is it not you? Thessalonians 2:19

Following God

We must continuously pursue knowing God more and more as we follow Him on this journey.

At the same time, we must strive to know ourselves more too: our identity, position, thinking, speech, actions... Whether they are in line with God's will and the truth. Then, when Jesus comes again, we would not be flabbergasted by His judgment, but instead joyously receive our Lord Jesus's praises and rewards.

May this be the wonderful ending for all of us.

God First, People Next, Then the Earth

Author: Rev. Joshua Cheung and Team

Cell Leader Must-read Series

Summary

In this warped and crooked generation, how do we build a strong church, courageously standing, becoming the body of Christ and manifesting our Heavenly Father's glory?

19 years ago, God gave 611 Bread of Life the vision. As our shepherding experiences unfold, He gradually revealed to us the nine core values from the Bible, and its practice deepens in the building of our church so much that it becomes the Tree of Life, and also in the planting of Trees of Life worldwide, doing missionary works and planting churches.

God First, People Then the Earth is the title for this book, and also the eleventh core value of 611 Bread of Life, a production from the coworkers' editorial team. Through this book, it's our pleasure to share how precious this core value is, whether it's to church and shepherding, or individuals and workplace.

Connection between two generations is the most important

MG12 Special Column

During the 12/7 Cell Group Leader ordination, MG12 Leader Siew Hua shared her shepherding experience.

"Malachi 4:6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers." Relationship with our previous generation is very important. It is true for spiritual relationship as well, the enemy will attack our relationship with our cell group leader. Have you ever experienced that you can't listen to your cell group leader? Perhaps before this your relationship with your cell leader was good, and you may thank your cell leader during your ordination. But as time goes, when your cell leader speaks to your life, would you still be willing to listen? I encourage you all to believe that your authority loves you. If both sides can hardly communicate, you can seek help from our Kindness sower ministry coworkers.

On the other hand, if you have a cell group member that has been with you for 1, 5 or even 10 years and still act like a spiritual infant, how do you help them to grow?

I have a disciple that told me that one of her members is as such: does not attend Sunday service regularly, does not yearn for equipping classes. My disciple has lost patience towards this member, I told my disciple not to blame herself and try to figure out the root of this member's problem. In actuality, this member is not young, but her mother still nags her, so she feels inferior, like she's not an adult. So asking her to attend equipping classes, to shepherd, this are all inconceivable to her. Therefore, cell group leader needs to understand their member's life and issues, and like a father, understand their problems and support them, instead of being a coach, telling them what to do. ■
