Following God

I really like this picture, it is like a huge V rotated to its right. V - the symbol of victory.

We're standing at the meeting point of two straight lines, supporting heaven and earth, and in other words connecting with God and to the ground, such brothers and sisters are overcomers! Their capacity is limitless to expansion. Hence, all spiritual and material blessings are also expanding without limits, because they have a borderless capacity to receive endless blessings from God.

From the picture, we could see two lines: the one extending downwards symbolises our humility and repentance has no ends, and the line extending upwards shows our faith towards God, as well as our praise and thanksgiving has no limit. Hallelujah! Such a life is impossible to be suppressed and oppressed by hardships in life. Instead, it is a life that lives in endless love, blessings, joy and enjoyment both with God and men. All these wonderful things could happen, because your are willing to step foot on the ground to be down to earth, and support the heavens with your head, while deeply connecting to God and holding the hands of people alongside you.

If I am still alive 30 years later.....

Pastor James:

I would be a 94-year-old man. I want to be a joyful elderly and enjoy my days with Big K and my children and grandchildren. I want my children and grandchildren to gather around our family dinner table and I would share and pass on the beautiful message of faith to them. As so, they would follow the footsteps of their grandfather and grandmother, to follow the Lord closely. I would also want to see my children and grandchildren become strong pillars in the kingdom of God

Pastor Lois:

I would already be 90 years old! I would say to the Lord: "I am already old, what else can I do for You?" The Lord would reply, "You are not old. You could still sing, dance and shepherd. You could still build up a lot of disciples!" Heavenly Father would smile at me and say: "Remember, you want to live till 120 years old. You will live a meaningful life. You will live for the Lord till your last breath."

To be numerous

Pastor Esther:

I would be already 85 years old. I would definitely be talking slower, and my steps would be slower too. However, my eyes would still be sharp at 85 years old. Do not think that that I would not notice if you didn't put on make-up on stage, or if you didn't lose the excess weight that you put on.

I will go to the Children Church to play with the children; I will go to the Youth Service to share their dreams; I will worship at the Elderly's Service. I will also look up on new recipes and bake cakes. I will always visit my sons, daughters-in-law and grandchildren. I will keep badgering my disciples for any breakthrough in their spousal relationship. If my husband mispronounces or makes a mistake in his English, I would glare at him. Hahahaha! It looks like nothing has changed.

There will in fact be changes. Compared to my younger days, I would have let go a lot more things. My heart would be more at peace. I would have written down how to hold my own funeral procession. I would have prepared myself to meet the Lord. I would have no regrets. I have said before that I do not wish to live for too long. At 85, I am already more than satisfied.

Rev David Ling:

I would be 85 years old. By then I would not be the senior pastor anymore! I would set my base on the prayer mountain and discipling nations. Together with Pastor Esther, we would travel through nations, caring for the 6111 churches. We would also shepherd the teams at our City Healing Center (main building) and Prayer Mounter Healing and Deliverance center to minister to all the pastors of Bread of Life. My biological children would also be part of the ministering team.

Other times, I would take care of some pets and grow my garden. I would continue my electric current therapy and coffee enema, live a happy life until the coming of Jesus. Not forgetting that I would write a book at the prayer mountain too. If Jesus' coming is delayed, I pray that God will let me pass peacefully at the prayer mountain.

Prayer Mountain

Ruth Chang:

I will be 76 years old, with a lot of children and grandchildren. I will become a happy and healthy elderly at the Prayer Mountain. I will be in charge of the prayer department. I will be praying for those who are hurt emotionally, releasing those who are in bondage and healing those who are sick. I will help many hurt women and orphans to be healed so that they become part of our prayer team. I will be teaching them how to cook. So I will be rather busy but happy at the same time.

Sarah Wong:

I will be 90 years old. My children will be in their fifties and sixties. Even my grandchildren will have family of their own. Our whole family will be serving at the Prayer Mountain. I will open an electric current therapy center, a hotel and restaurant there, arranging the logistics of those who come for treatment of their body, heart and spirit.

Connie Lai :

I am now 74 years old. I am a warm and kind-hearted old grandma pastor with the heart of a child. I will see my husband returning to Christ and serving God wholeheartedly, and we will shepherd the Lord's sheep together. He loves to plant, Pastor David will send him to plant fruit trees and take care of the fruit farm at Prayer Mountain. I will see both my sons, Samuel and Samson being called to become pastors. They would have blessed marriages, and serve God wholeheartedly.

Disciple the nation

Carolina:

I would already be 69 years old. I would be a missionary, travelling to many places to preach the Word of God, acting as a pioneer. Meanwhile, my whole family are also servants of God. I use my life to influence other's lives, building up disciples, becoming an influential shepherd. I would have opened up a centre for the homeless, and preached the gospel to them.

Siong Nyuk Ping:

I am now 61 years old. I will have a healthy body and a happy heart to serve the Lord, I can laugh while twirling 360 degrees in crowds, and I lead brothers and sisters to be pioneers in expanding the work of the church creatively. I will also write sermons in the late nights, grow closer to God, feast on His words, and then share it to all brothers and sisters.

Fong Pau Chiong:

I am now a healthy 78-year-old man. I may be old, but my heart is young. The word of God has built up my life, changing me into a tree of life. I am in the church of God preaching His gospel, building up disciples to become apostles. I live a simple life, every evening I will watch the sunset with my wife, enjoying the scenery that God has created.

Doreen:

I am now 79 years old! Along with 81-year-old Stephen, we would happily witness our children and grandchildren serving on stage for God, and becoming Levites! Our church now has seven to eight thousand people. I see a lot of professional accountants in the accounting department helping the church with the abundant funds. Every week I will open up my Young Single Mummy Support Centre, praising and worshipping God with these mothers and their children, and share the love of God to mothers who have not believed in Christ.

Pastor David Yancey:

I would still be a pastor, and the Leadership School will continue to grow and expand to different parts of the world. All these leaders of the international Leadership School are my disciples. My partner and I will have a pet dog. We will host many pastors and co-workers, brothers and sisters at home. I live my life for one thing, which is to live and shepherd.

Matthias:

I would be a 63-year-old uncle. Because of exercise, though my age is 63, my body is strong like one at the age of 36. For 30 years, I would have been watching the media department grow from a 3-person ministry into more than 300-people ministry. God's talents prosper enormously, shooting evangelistic clips and producing music albums and constantly doing publicity for our movies overseas. To be able to stay young and strong is definitely God's grace!

Esther Choo:

I will be 58 years old. By then, Anna and Abigail will be married to God-fearing men. I will have also become a young grandma. At that time, I will still be very busy with church work, accompanying Moses preaching everywhere. I will also be busy helping Moses managing his chain store, and monitoring all Kuching 611 branches' kindergartens. By then, I should be a well-to-do woman, supporting the church ministry with income generated from my own businesses.

Pastor Karen K.:

I would be 64 years old! I would be very busy as Kuching 611 Children's Church would have gone international, therefore I will still be busy. The children whom I am shepherding now would have become my department co-workers. I would be shepherding their children. Their children would be as adorable as how their parents were at that age.

Pastor Alicia:

I would already be 68 years old. At that time, I'll be an adorable grandma. I'll still serve God and have a beautiful and intimate relationship with God. I would go to different countries to serve, and would have established many groups that are capable to do healing and deliverance, teaching classes for power ministry, so that more people can rise up to do power healing. Once a year, I would go vacationing in different countries, do charities and helping the poor, orphans and widows.

IP Esther Wong:

I would have already been ordained as a pastor! A pastor young at heart and full of energy! Shepherding spiritual and biological grandchildren together with my husband. At that time, the church will have more university students, young adults using their own life to influence other lives, spreading gospels, multiplying God's disciples, each has the ability to perform miracles, prophesy to the world, and conduct healing and deliverance.

Pastor Moses:

If I'm still alive 30 years later, I'll be 64 years old. Yik Chee will be 58 years old. We should be going to different places to serve God. Anna and Abigail will have their own families and careers and keep God's calling. I would have written countless songs, and gone to many countries. I may have even migrated to Israel or America; and would bought lots of guitars, bringing up many guitarists and worshippers.

Pastor Hannah:

I would be a 71-year-old kind, amiable, joyful and contented grandma Hannah. I'll live in the house of prayer and become a full time intercessor. I will lead a group of intercessors with similar vision and revelation, watching over all nations together. I would see that 247 prayer room will have 24 shifts daily, day and night non-stop praying!

Sharon :

I would be 70 years old. I would have the heart, body, courage, appearance and passion like a 40-year-old. My heart continues to beat for God and live for God. I'll continue to happily sing, play the piano, pray, do healing and deliverance, build disciples, travel, eat to fullness and sleep well! Living a simple life~

Deborah Huang:

I would be 80 years old! I would be sitting in a beautiful flower garden, wearing my reading glasses reading all the prayer items to be interceded on my computer. There would be a lot of women by my side, serving and praising God happily. My children and grandchildren would be running their Caring and Healing Centres in their different areas, helping and consoling the people in need, leading them to know God.
